Symbolic Awards are Powerful

When was the last time you received an award that was made exclusively for you?

Almost all communication today is digital, providing instantaneous feedback. This is no doubt impactful, however companies who integrate symbolic awards into recognition moments have an unfair advantage. Why?

Symbols are the visible signs of invisible realities!

Symbolic Awards are Back!

- Increase Retention Employees are 3x's more likely to remember the positive workplace experience if a symbolic award is used
- Increase Engagement: Companies can boost employee engagement by 12% when custom, tangible awards are used as incentives
- Improve Relationships: Over 70% of symbolic awards are handed to the recipient by a manager, creating a more meaningful relationship. Remember, employees don't quit companies, they quit their managers!

"I often look at my 1-year award I display on my desk as a reminder of how much I've grown in my time here. It's a nice reassurance that I'm in the right place and I belong."

Claudia Cohen, Inside Sales Rep

Manage your Recognition Strategy with One, Easy Platform
