Agenda

- Value of peer-to-peer recognition
- Introducing recognition to your organization
- Exploration of the Plus Platform
- How to get started and grow with Terryberry

Current Engagement Programs are Ineffective

FOR HR TEAMS:

- Time consuming administration
- Siloed Programs
- Manual effort

FOR EMPLOYEES:

- Low or declining participation
- Underwhelming reward experience
- Multiple programs to manage

FOR CHRO'S:

- No measurement of impact on culture/recognition
- ROI not clear
- Cost of managing multiple programs add up

Value of a Milestone Recognition Program

Employees seek these 4 broad categories when determining their trajectory at your organization:

Recognition and a Supportive Environment

- Being valued for their work
- Safe work environment, both physically and psychologically
- Effective communication
- Recognition and rewards
- Meaningful relationships

Development and Growth Opportunities

- Career development opportunities
- Autonomy (where possible)
- Empowerment

Work-Life Balance and Flexibility

- Blend between balancing personal and professional commitments
- Flexibility in work arrangements (where possible)

Fairness and Purpose

- Sense of importance
- Sense of purpose
- Fairness
- Equity

Introducing a Recognition Program

1. Meet them where they are. We can help

You can share recognition via email or letter. We can help by integrating with your HRIS or working with you to draft a letter.

2. Make technology available (where possible)

Having tablets or computers available for employees to log in while they're on their break can be a great way to encourage employees to redeem their awards.

Recognition

Our Core and Plus offerings allow you to customize a program that is right for your company.
